Tom,

Just FYI, I sent the notice for publication on 8/30/2014. I still don't have a proof of publication, but will forward as soon as I get it.

Do you still need the hard copy, or is electronic sufficient?

Thank you

Good Morning Tom,

We have not published the notice yet, as Southern Company needed to fully review their part.

I just discussed that with them and they had two corrections that they pointed out, I expect to receive an email with the detailsshortly.

My plan was to get with you and see how you would like to handle that.
