Dickson,

As per our conversation last week it seems I misunderstood the question on the average VOC used. The 361.10 number represents the monthly average. The correct number for the daily usage is 12.03.

I apologize for any inconvenience. If you have any other questions or need any additional info please feel free to contact me direct.

Emission Sources - Air General Permits

Surface Coating Operations

Surface coating or painting operations are the processes of depositing a coating material on a target surface using certain application methodologies such as spray, roll, etc. Surface coating operations can be prime and topcoat or single coat operations.

A facility comprising surface coating operations may be eligible to operate as an emissions source in Florida under the terms of a conditional exemption from Title V air permitting, through the use of an Air General Permit that incorporates the requirements of the conditional exemption.
