Dear Sir:

Counts Construction Co., Inc. no longer mines in the Diamondback Mine and hasn't since October of 2006 when we terminated the lease. We would like to surrender the air permit #0830159 that we had for that mine.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Randy Bullock,

Good morning!

In response to your letter dated 10/27/2009 (pdf file copy attached), whereby your company expresses the desire to surrender the subject item facility's entitlement to operate, this e-mail is confirmation that the facility status and all associated emission units have been changed to INACTIVE status. As it was, and according to our database, the entitlement to operate this facility was due to expire today, Friday, 10/30/2009.

Immediately below are my Facility screen comments in their entirety, and following that is a Facility "screen print" displaying the Facility Status as INACTIVE in our database.

FACILITY SCREEN COMMENTS: 10/28/09-INACTIVE per ltr dated 10/27/09 fr R. Bullock to surrender AGP, Counts O/AR, terminated their lease in 10/06 and they have not mined @ the Diamondback Mine since then.
