Air General Permit Registration

The Department of Environmental Protection has established an "air general permit" at Florida Administrative Code ("F.A.C.") Rule 62-210.310(5)(b) for concrete batching plant. An air general permit is an authorization by rule to construct or operate a specific type of air pollutant emitting facility. Use of such authorization by any individual facility does not require action by the Department. The terms and conditions of the air general permit are set forth in the rule, rather than in a separately issued air construction or air operation permit.

If you are the owner or operator of an eligible facility comprising one or more concrete batching plants, you may register to use the air general permit at Rule 62-210.310(5)(b), F.A.C., by following the general procedures given at subsections 62-210.310(2) and 62-210.310 (3), F.A.C. To register, use the Department's electronic registration system (currently under development) or submit all the information specified in the above rules to either of the following addresses, along with the air general permit registration processing fee ($100.00).

If you properly register to use an air general permit, and are not denied use of the air general permit by the Department, you are authorized to construct and operate the facility in accordance with the general terms and conditions of Rule 62-210.310, F.A.C., and the specific terms and conditions of Rule 62-210.310(5)(b), F.A.C. Your facility may vary, so be sure your registration describes the operations at your facility in sufficient detail to demonstrate the facility's eligibility for use of the air general permit and to provide a basis for tracking any future equipment or process changes. Your registration should describe all air pollutant-emitting processes and equipment at the facility, and it should identify any air pollution control measures or equipment used.

The rules do not require any specific format for the registration. This worksheet, however, has been designed to assist owners and operators. Using it as a template for a general permit registration will help ensure that all necessary information is submitted.
