Dear Mr. Grant,

Thank you for your inquiry.

I have located a registration form from you which we date stamped as received on January 11, 2010.

The serial number of the BL Pegson 428 TRAKPACTOR unit which you recorded on the registration form is S/N 280136GE, not the S/N 280316GE as you have shown in your e-mail below.

If this is in-fact the crusher to which you are referring, I need to know which is the correct serial number of the unit so I can make adjustments to our records if needed. Somewhere along the way the serial number may have been transposed. Please advise.

To address your original question, the air general permit registration procedure is subject to a mandatory thirty (30) day processing and review period beginning on the stamped date of receipt. I am not allowed by rule to convey the exact date of issuance, since issuance is not certain until the actual issued date is achieved.

I hope this helps.

Thank you and have a great day!

Sincerely

Dickson E. Dibble
