IMC Port Sutton Terminal Animal Feed Ingredient Truck Unloading,
Storage and Transfer System Final Determination

The construction application for the Animal Feed Ingredient (AFI) system at IMC's Port Sutton Terminal has been reviewed by the Department. Public notice of the Department's intent to issue was published in the Tampa Tribune on October 29, 1979. The preliminary determination and technical evaluation was available for public inspection at the Hillsborough County Environmental Protection Commission Office, the DER Southwest District Office and the Bureau of Air Quality Management.

Only one response was received by the Bureau on this application. IMC requested that emission testing would not be a part of the operation permit due to the expense and the numerous test points. This was not the intent of the Bureau. Emission testing was to determine compliance at start up since accurate emission estimates are not available to obtain an operating permit; then visible emission tests would determine compliance with the operating permit. Clarifying language was added to specific condition number 5. IMC also stated that the current shiploading transfer system permits contain sufficient throughput limitations to allow this increase in material transfer. Therefore this specific condition has been estimated. IMC also stated that current practice is to allow operation of the source after it passes the emission test requirements. The Bureau concurs with this practice and specific condition number 6 has been modified to provide this.

It is requested that the construction permit be issued with these amendments.
