Doug,

Does the petitioner (Jane E. Miller) become a third party to be copied on any action taken on the permit by the District? As far as I know she has not made a specific request to be one, but I am assuming she should be a third party due to the petition. Anyone else to include as a third party?

Thanks

I've talked to Ms. Holden. She said that she will be faxing a letter to OGC today which will explain why the Petitioner failed to timely respond to the Order Dismissing Petition with Leave to Amend. She said the letter will request some additional time to retain an attorney and file a petition for administrative hearing. If you have not issued the permit yet then you may want to wait until after we receive Ms. Holden's letter.

11/12/02 4PM telecon w/ Doug B. Ms. Holden told him he'd get something today. Doug said that depending on what's received, or not, he'd let us know tomorrow what to do ~~about~~ about issuing permits. I'd already told Doug people to prepare permit for my signature (not on my desk yet).

Summary of Conversation/Meeting Advertised meeting last nite.

~~Met~~ County Commissioners & head of planning & zoning board. They've collected ^{was there} money for attorney, but missed the deadline to file amended petition.

They want to know if permit will be issued regardless of this telephone call so they'll know whether to continue w/ hiring of attorney or not. Told her this was ^{11AM} a legal issue which I couldn't answer & would call our attorney.

11/07/02 Telecon w/ J. Beason/R. Moor/JK: he will call Ms. Holden & then will be in bus to whether to issue permit.

11/12/02 11:30 AM: Received a voice mail message from Max Lee, P.E., consultant (Koogler and Associates) inquiring about the time of issuing final construction permit. He is aware that no amended petition was received in 14-day window of dismissal order.

Refer to OGC Case No. 02-1186, the order dismissing petition with leave to amend was mailed from your office on October 23, 2002. The 14-day deadline to receive an amended petition was on November 6, 2002.

Would you please let me know whether you received an amended petition and what would be the next Department action?
