Hi Scott,

Thank you very much for your call concerning the CAIR part form. When Progress Energy completed the forums it was our understanding that column c was asking if the unit was an acid rain unit. As many of our older combustion turbines are not in the acid rain program, we did not check this box "c". Based on your call and the regulation cited under column c, it appears that this column should have been checked for the older combustion turbines. These older turbines are in the CAIR program and subject to the CAIR rules.

Accordingly, I have updated the first page of the CAIR part form and have attached it to this e-mail. I would very much appreciate your updating our records with the attached sheets as an administrative correction.

Thank you very much for your attention to this matter. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at 727-820-5295. Best regards, Dave

Comment: On July 11, 2008, the D.C. Circuit issued an opinion vacating CAIR. Accordingly, Florida Power Corporation dba Progress Energy Florida, Inc. (PEF) requests that the CAIR Part for each of the facilities listed above with their respective project permit numbers not be submitted by the Florida Department of Environmental Protection (FDEP) to the EPA in proposed form, and not finalized at this time. Once the D.C. Circuit Court's ruling is final, PEF requests that this permit revision process be terminated, either by withdrawing the draft permit, returning our application or treating it as withdrawn. In the event the D.C. Circuit Court's ruling is reheard or overturned on appeal. PEF and the FDEP can discuss how best to continue the permit-revision process, and whether the Statement of Basis or Permit requires additional language.

Please keep a copy of these comments for each of the Progress Energy projects you have worked on. This is the comment that will allow us to take more than the rule required 30 days to send the Proposed CAIR permit to EPA.
